October 2015

From The Editor

Welcome to the Jayco Jaybirds SA club newsletter.

Many thanks this month to Lyn for her report on the Stockport rally and to Karen, Emma and Judy for the photos.

Keith Greenlees Editor (kagreenlees@gmail.com)

Our best wishes to Inga as she works on a daily basis to improve her health. As a consequence of the health issues, both Inga and Don have had to resign from the committee. On behalf of everyone, I would like to thank them sincerely for their contribution to establishing our new club. The programming is the most time consuming role and the providing a balance of northern and southern venues, coupled with meeting member's requests is quite challenging. You have managed all of that and even appeased my request for bush camping! Thank you so much.

A DAY AT THE FARM

On Sunday 17th October, Don and Anne kindly invited members to a day at Silver Acres. We toured the 135 acre property and saw some spectacular views. We then had a BBQ with of course a few glasses of ale. Anne made the best 'brownies' I have ever tasted. Another chef in our midst. It was a beautiful day and as usual much laughter prevailed.

Many thanks to you both for hosting a lovely day.

Lyn

Stockport Caravan Park, Stockport

Jayco Jaybirds: Stockport Rally, 2nd to 5th October 2015

Wow, what a surprise package! I don't think anyone could have imagined such an unusual experience. The weather was fabulous and as usual, much laughter.

We were greeted by the camp managers and were taken on an amazing tour. They have dozens of very old cars including a Mercedes valued at $3.4 million! In addition they have collected thousands of pieces of equipment, tools and relics. They have a grand plan to create the most unique caravan park in Australia. They also offered to provide a concert featuring Elvis Presley next time we visit!

Most people visited local towns during the day and the evening meal was to die for. I think we have some members preparing for a gig on Master Chef!

Following an unusual night drive we returned to a great camp fire which provided welcome relief as the cold night air descended.

Thanks everyone for a great rally.

Lyn
