From The Editor

Welcome to the Jayco Jaybirds SA club newsletter.

Many thanks to Judy for her report on the Stony Creek Rally and to Pauline for the photos.

Stony Creek Rally Report (Allan's Rally) Stony Creek Bush Camp

Allan's Rally - Stony Creek

This weekend was the hardest rally I've ever attended but it will also be the rally I will never forget.

Club rallies are always Friday to Sunday but like always some members arrive early and stay later. I was very lucky to have an ex member in Sue and a current member in Lou to share the driving and come to the rally Friday. Think I was lucky to get my car back. Phil and Lin were very thoughtful in booking cabins for us (even though Sue and I shared a double bed) interesting.

Friday night was the biggest dinner ever held with 33 people sharing a beautiful roast meal. Pauline what a monumental effort you did in organizing everything. Ray provided the spits and cooked the meat to perfection. The girls who cooked the veggies just lovely and Jan and Emma and Karen who provided the desserts well they were absolutely delish.

After dinner Sid had a raging fire going where lots of laughs and merriment were had. Saturday was a glorious day where everyone did their own thing whether it was exploring, craft, reading or just relaxing until everyone came together for more food drink etc. No wonder I put on weight at these rallies.

Most people enjoyed Kellies pizzas Saturday night sitting around the fire followed by some clever ditties (several not repeatable in this writeup).

Sunday - for the people supporting the retirees and myself was time to head for home.

Allan / A2 / elpresident would have been so proud of everyone this weekend. It was an absolutely incredible turnout.

I would like to thank each and every one of you Jaybirds for being there for me. Although I am feeling pretty lost and empty right now and still can't believe I've lost my soul mate you all helped in your own way.

Hopefully over time I can attend rallies and not be so teary. The club meant the world to Allan and I'm sure he would want me to continue having a great time with all you wonderful people.

Until next time
